Sizing Up 'Free France,' One Year Old

DeGaulle Has Area 6 Times France's Size

The Free French movement goes into its second year with what political and military analysts in London believe are improving chances of restoring France to its old prestige. This summing up of the Free French status was sent to the AP Feature Service by cable.

By RUSSELL G. LANDSTROM
Associated Press Service Writer

LONDON—A little over a year ago Gen. Charles de Gaulle proclaimed:

"The flame of French resistance must never die and will not die."

Hundreds of his countrymen had wept their fill at the collapse of France and responded eagerly to De Gaulle's summons to "all French officers and soldiers in Britain or who can come to Britain with their arms or without their arms."

Soon he had some 25,000 men ready to serve him, plus an auxiliary "Corps Feminin". Now his army numbers 40,000. Free France dug itself in solidity in Equatorial Africa and some smaller African colonies, in colonial outposts in the Pacific, in India and New Caledonia.

Only a few weeks ago, it was reported, Free French supporters maneuvered a bloodless coup in Tahiti, seizing the government from Nazi sympathizers.

Free French territory covers nearly three million square miles, about six times the size of France itself, and boasts several modern ports and airdromes.

Free French troops campaigned with the British against the Vichyites in Syria, suffering about 1,250 casualties according to official reports.

More Than 100 Ships

The Free French navy includes more than 100 ships—battleships, destroyers, motor torpedo boats, submarines, mine layers and smaller craft. One of the submarines is said to be the largest in the world, but its very size is a disadvantage.

The air force numbers more than 1,000 flyers, many of whom fought with the British in Ethiopia and Libya.

Under the leadership of Simone Mathieu, the celebrated lawn tennis player, the Corps Feminin is patterned after British women's auxiliary organizations. It furnishes secretaries, orderlies, drivers and nurses to Free French headquarters here.

Working men replied to De Gaulle's call as well as soldiers. French skilled laborers staff an entire airplane repair plant from the director down to the youngest apprentice. Other workers are helping in demolition of tottering buildings and clearing up bombed parts of the city. Still others have been absorbed into British factories.

De Gaulle's deputy in London is Admiral Muselier, a slightly-built, lively native of Provence. He possesses something of his chief's energy, if not his oratorical gift, is affable, modest and has a sense of humor.

The head of the Free French in the Middle East is General Catroux, tall, lithe son of a general and an authority on the land over which he has jurisdiction. Born in Algeria, he is a veteran of the World war.

Captured Five Times

De Gaulle himself is 50. He was wounded three times in the World war and was captured five times at Verdun, escaping each time until finally he got back to the French lines.

In 1934 he published a book, "The Army Of The Future", which is said to have given the Germans many ideas on mechanical warfare. Vichy has sentenced him to death.

The African natives among De Gaulle's troops look on him as a kind of god. There is a tribal legend about him that runs something like this:

"De Gaulle was a corporal. He was dead. He had been dead for five years. In his grave he heard that a German corporal (Hitler) had taken his Paris. He leaped from his grave shouting 'I am a general now, and I'll show you something.'"

TENNIS PLAYER Madame Simone Mathieu commands the Auxiliary Transport Service Corps for Free French armies. Here she inspects one of the units.

DESERT BUGLER. Followers of De Gaulle, many of them former members of the famed Foreign Legion, have cooperated with the British throughout the Middle East.

SON OF A PROFESSOR of philosophy, Charles de Gaulle at the age of 20 joined a regiment commanded by Philippe Petain.

TOO YOUNG for active service, these Free French boys receive full military training at one of England's public schools. Many were cadets in French military academies before they fled to England.

TRIBE OPENS SERIES WITH 'RED HOT' A'S

By The Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1 — No one is denying that Cleveland's Indians could use a little more fancy talent as the Tribe moves into the city of brotherly love for a three-game clash with the first-division Athletics.

General Manager C. C. Slapnicka admits the Indians are casting longing glances at Charles "Red" Embree, a right-hander who is helping the Wilkesbarre, Pa., farm lead the Eastern League, with his 16 wins and only two defeats.

Having won only two of the eight games in its eastern swing, the Tribe faces tomorrow a team which is in the groove. The A's climbed into the first division yesterday by knocking the White Sox out of fourth place.

It was a break for the Indians that their final game with Washington was called off yesterday because of threatening weather and wet grounds, for Lou Boudreau was suffering from a leg injury and would have been out of the lineup.

Swimming Stars Seek Ohio A.A.U. Titles At Cleveland

By The Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1 — Four national champions lead a field of 76 swimmers and divers who will churn the water tonight in Cumberland pool in the ninth annual Ohio Amateur Athletic Union championships.

Fourteen cities and 23 clubs are represented in the competition.

The national titleholders are Helen Perry of Cleveland, twice winner of the indoor backstroke crown; Ted Hobart of Sandusky, holder of the Junior A.A.U. title in the 50-meter free style; Clarence Kuntz of Fremont, interscholastic backstroke champion; and Bob Furlong of Lakewood, interscholastic diving king.

National Champs Entered

Miss Perry will compete in the 100-meter free style, the high board diving and will attempt to better her meet mark of 1:20.7 set two years ago in the 100-meter back stroke for women.

The nation's second ranking feminine diver, Margaret Reinhalt of Columbus, is the favorite in the women's diving.

Furlong will be opposed by Jack Wolin, former Cleveland Heights high school star who is at the University of Michigan, a one-time Ohio titlist who holds the Michigan A.A.U. crown. Frank Dempsey, Ohio State university junior, is unable to be present to defend his crown.

Benny Hayes of Fremont, former national Junior A.A.U. champion and holder of the Ohio scholastic breast stroke title, is entered in the 200-meter veent.

If Cards Can Dodge Injuries They'll Cop, Says Southworth

By The Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1 — If the Cardinals can dodge the injury jinx the rest of the season the club will win the National league pennant, says Manager Billy Southworth.

The team entered the Brooklyn series, which they split to retain their two game lead, with the lineup at full strength for the first time since opening day when Catcher Gus Mancuso was removed with a badly bruised and sprained finger.

"Barring further injuries the Cardinals will win the pennant," Southworth asserted. "It is only because of excellent replacements, and because we've really played to win, that the club has stayed on top this long."

Gus Out 11 Days

Mancuso went out at just the time his experience behind the plate was necessary to balance the roster of young hurlers carried by the club. He was out 11 days.

Before Gus could get back in action, Pitcher Clyde Shoun, veteran workhorse of whom much was expected, jammed his ankle sliding into third base and he limped on the sidelines until May 15. Since then Shoun has been pounded from the box more times than the club would like to remember.

Then Enos Slaughter, who wields a wicked bat, reported to the team's physician for treatment of an ailment that has caused his removal off and on since the start of the season.

Walker Cooper, brilliant rookie catcher, was the next victim.

He was in a collision at the plate May 18 and came out second best with a broken shoulder blade. Cooper didn't get back into armor until July 13.

Mize, Crespi Hurt

May 25, Slugger Johnny Mize and Second Baseman Frank Crespi each fractured a finger.

Crespi was back seven days later; Mize was out for almost a month, but before he returned Third Baseman Jimmy Brown, sparkplug of the infield, went out with a broken hand. Brown's injury, which occurred June 11, kept him off the diamond until July 10.

The next victim was Morton Cooper, pitching mainstay. He was removed June 18 from an elbow operation. July 27 marked his return.

On July 21, Don Padgett, utility outfielder, catcher and hitter de luxe, checked out with tonsilitis.

Captain Terry Moore, centerfielder, joined the ranks of the injured July 19 with a sprained shoulder.

So you can understand why Southworth considers a pennant a cinch for his Cardinals, barring injuries.

CINCY SWEEPS GIANT SERIES; MEET BRAVES

By The Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1—Opening a four-game series here today with the Reds are the Boston Braves—the National league club which has treated the world champions best so far this year.

The Reds won nine of 13 games with the Braves and Johnny Vander Meer, today's probable, defeated the seventh-placers three of four. Al Javery was slated for his second start against the Redlegs. He won his first.

Chuck Aleno pinchhit a single in the ninth inning to win yesterday's game with the New York Giants 6-5 and give Cincinnati a clean sweep of the three-game series. The blow—Aleno's second game-winning pinchhit in nine days—tumbled the Giants to their eighth defeat in nine games.

Frank McCormick got two singles and became the first Redleg with more than 100 hits.

LOOP RACE TIGHTENS AS AKRON DROPS TWO

By The Associated Press.

AKRON, Aug. 1—The Mid-Atlantic league pennant race, which a month ago looked like a walkaway for the Akron Yankees, today took the appearance of a dogfight after an eight-game program of doubleheaders around the circuit.

Only five and a half games separated the Yanks from fourth place Erie after the Sailors knocked off the pace-setters twice, 5-3 and 7-3. Red Bartleson hurled brilliantly for Erie in the seven inning opener after taking over in the first inning with one out and the bases loaded.

Second-place Springfield twice defeated Dayton, 7-3 and 6-3, and moved within two games of Akron. The Cards scored in bunches, six runs in the sixth inning of the first contest and three runs in the eighth of the second game.

Canton shut out Youngstown twice, 4-0. Bill Voiselle allowed two hits in the seven inning opener and Lou Lucier gave up three in the regulation nightcap.

Charleston and Zanesville fought to a draw at Zanesville, the Cubs taking the first 5-4 and the visitors the second 7-2.

Tonight's schedule: Springfield at Erie, Dayton at Youngstown, Zanesville at Akron and Charleston at Canton.

Dodgers Beat Cards; Remain Behind By Two

Yanks Take Doubleheader As Bucs Triumph

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers may have their shortcomings, but they aren't lacking in determination.

They were backed up against the wall yesterday, tottering, ready for a kill by St. Louis, but they bounced back with a 15 hit assault, including three home runs, to trounce the Cardinals, 9-5.

This left the National league race in the same chaotic state as when the two rivals first came together Tuesday. The Redbirds still have a two-game lead.

The series was as explosive and dramatic as any of the season has spawned, and the finale matched the two previous tussles. Dolph Camilli hit his 19th home run and Lew Riggs smacked his third to pelt Harry Gumbert from the mound in the second inning. The Cards came back to drive out Whitlow Wyatt in the third and tie the score.

Wasdell Homers

Then the Dodgers put victory out of reach of St. Louis with a four-run fourth inning centering around Jim Wasdell's home run with two on.

The New York Yankees took a tighter grip on the American league lead, meanwhile, by sweeping a doubleheader from the Detroit Tigers, 6-3 and 5-0. Darkness curtailed the second session to eight innings. Joe DiMaggio connected for a single in the opener and a single and his 25th homer with two on in the nightcap to extend his new hitting streak to 14 contests. This made 70 out of 71 for him.

The speeding Philadelphia Athletics crushed the Chicago White Sox, 9-2, to take over fourth place, with Benny McCoy's grand-slam homer in the fourth providing the impetus. It was the first time in years the A's had been in the first division at this late date.

Cleveland Rained Out

The Boston Red Sox divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns. The first affair was a wild hitting demonstration with each team getting 14 safeties and St. Louis winning, 16-11. Tex Hughson pitched six-hit ball to give Boston the nightcap, 4-1.

Cleveland and Washington were rained out.

In the National league, the Cincinnati Reds nipped the New York Giants, 6-5, on Chuck Aleno's pinch-single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning, scoring two runs.

Pittsburgh managed to keep right behind by nosing out the Boston Braves, 9-8, in a free-hitting spectacle. The Phillies crushed the Chicago Cubs again, 7-2.

FLORISTS HALT CHINAS IN EIGHTH, 6-TO-5; VETS HUMBLED BY ELKS, 13-0

Homer Laughlin Scores Five In Seventh To Deadlock Heimie's, 7-7; McVickers Of Lodgemen Limits D.A.V. To Three Hits And Strikes Out 14

By ROBERT F. SHAFFER
The Review Sports Editor

It took Guy Digman's Riverview Florists to stop the surge of the Hall nine which, for the past month, had threatened to worm its way into the first division of the City league.

The extra-inning 6-5 defeat administered the Chinas Thursday afternoon at Patterson field probably will rob them of a play-off. It was their 10th set-back against 11 victories, and with the triumph the Florists edged half a game closer to the league-leading Irishtown crew.

While the Riverviews were pulling one out of the fire, the Elks were having a field day at the expense of the lowly D. A. V.'s, walloping the Vets, 13-0, as McVickers hurled three-hit ball and fanned 14 on the East End diamond. The victory, however, didn't have any effect on the standings since the Florists were turning back the Chinas, but the win did enable them to gain two percentage points on the second-place club.

Over at Newell, Homer Laughlin escaped with a 7-7 tie with Heimie's as the plant nine wiped out a five-run deficit in the last of the seventh to gain the deadlock. The game was called at that point on account of darkness.

Call, Orsock In Duel

Jack Call and Bill Orsock locked in a pitcher's duel in the Riverview-Hall China fracas with the latter having a shade the better of the argument as he set the Chinas down in the last four frames. His mates reached Call for two runs in the seventh which knotted the score at 5-all, and the winning marker in the first of the eighth.

Unger worked Call for a free ticket to first in the eighth. He advanced on a hit batsman, and scored when Talbot muffed Cunningham's high fly in right field.

Both clubs tallied three times in the second inning, but Hall China came back in the third and fourth to push single runs over to take a 5-3 lead, which they held until the seventh.

Call fanned 10 and gave up only three walks as Orsock whiffed seven and issued one free pass. Both hurlers were effective with runners on base. G. Mase, China catcher, paced both teams at bat with three singles and a double in four trips to the plate.

Elks Stage Track Meet

In the sixth inning track meet staged on the East End field, the Elks hammered the offerings of McGeehan and Stepien, D. A. V. hurlers, for 10 hits, including doubles off the bats of R. Duffy, Wolfe and McKinnon. The Lodgemen picked up three in the first, three in the third, and then came back in the next frame to push two more across to make it 8-0 as McVickers was setting the Vets down in order.

To make a riot of the contest, they rammed five over in the fifth, and after D. A. V. batted in the first of the sixth, Umpire Long stopped the game on account of darkness.

Nine errors contributed to the downfall of the Veterans.

The Laughlins saved their faces when they pulled through with a deadlock against Heimie's after trailing the entire game. Going into the seventh on the short end of a 7-2 score, they shoved five scores across. The hits were up even at 7 apiece with each team having one error charged against it.

Taylor, Smith and Taylor got back on the winning trail Thursday afternon as they humbled Pattersons, 11-1, to go into a tie for second place in the Y-Pottery league, but Laughlins No. 6-7 weren't so fortunate as they bowed to Edwin M. Knowles in a close game, 9-7.

With the count 7-0, Allison chalked up the eighth run in the third inning for T. S. and T. Kwasnik and Springer coming home again in the fourth. Allison came home for the 11th run in the seventh inning. Pattersons sent Podwell home for their only run of the ball game in the seventh.

Laughlins No. 6-7 opened the second game with a four run splurge, Smith singled and Simcox and Dickey walked to fill the bags. Franczek singled to score all three. Raney drove a high one to right field and Franczek scored after the catch.

Knowles scored Horton in their half of the first and the count was 4-1. Babb, Davis and Williams of Knowles scored the second to even the count at 4-4. Laughlins No. 6-7 scored three runs in the third to take a 7-4 lead, with Smith, Simcox and Franczek doing the scoring.

Horton and Massey re-gained two of the runs for Knowles in the last of the third, and Horton evened the count in the next inning when he tripled and scored on a single by Massey. With the count knotted at 7-7, Babb singled for Knowles and was followed by a single by Davis. Both scored when Williams and McKernan poled out singles to give Knowles a 9-7 triumph.

Fast Time, Then

NEW YORK — The AAU has just dug up some interesting early swimming records: the first champion was R. Weissenborn, who swam the mile in 1877 in 45 minutes, 44¼ seconds. That's a sharp contrast to today's record of 20:57.8, held by Jack Medica and Ralph Flanagan.

Yanks Good In Dark, Too

NEW YORK—With only two more night games scheduled this season, the New York Yankees are convinced they're pretty good at night even if they don't particularly like arc light ball. The Yanks have won every nocturnal engagement this year.

Billy Soose and Georgie Abrams

AS CHAMP SOOSE WAS BEATEN. On a 20-day furlough from the Jacksonville, Fla., U. S. naval base, Georgie Abrams, Washington, D. C., middleweight, pounded out his third victory over Champion Billy Soose in 10 rounds in New York. The bout was a non-title affair. In the action shot above, Abrams lets one go at Soose's nose.

Sport Chatter

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 — (The Special News Service)—One of the yarns going around town is that Fritzie Zivic was hitting too many high spots before bumping into Red Cochrane at Newark. . . . The war situation is going to hit southern schools harder than those up this way because more boys in Dixie small towns are members of the National Guard. . . . Only thing certain about the ske of the Louis-Nova bout is that Mike Jacobs will stage it where he figures he can make the most sugar. . . . If that circus really wants Jack Dempsey it'll have to up its $3,000-per-week offer by exactly one grand. . . . American league attendance (due in no small part to the DiMaggio streak and the spurt of the Yanks) is 200,000 ahead of last year's figure, but the moguls think it will slump from now on unless the race tightens up.

Fred Apostoli, now a boxing instructor at the Norfolk naval station, will resume fighting shortly under Harold Scadron's banner. . . . Those hoss players up in Canada sure are missing the form sheets which no longer can be imported from this side of the border. . . . Tom Harmon's new job at station WJR in Detroit will be sports director, with a little broadcasting of football games on the side. . . . Bill Terry is going to Atlanta soon to see if Second-Baseman Connie Ray is worth the $25,000 and two players the crackers want for him.

Today's guest star.

H. V. Wade, Detroit News: "A little more of this sort of baseball and the rest of the league will begin to think of our Tigers as the loyal opposition."

Sports cocktail.

Dizzy Dean was roasted in Denver for collecting his $800 guarantee and leaving the ball park at the end of two innings when he had contracted to hurl three. . . . Johnny Paycheck, one of Joe Louis' victims, is seriously ill in Milwaukee. . . . Johnny Ray and Billy Conn are so lonely in Hollywood they call up their Pittsburgh sports-writing pals two or three times a week just to say hello. . . . Squire Gene Sarazen has his Connecticut ranch operating in the black, with a weekly revenue of $200 from the sale of milk alone.

The Yanks are breezing along like all get-up and the chances are they're definitely off the market. . . . But Mr. Farley and his syndicate might do some business in St. Louis or Philadelphia, if they're still syndicating.

Tips On How To Keep Well

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Savants admit influence of science in literature.

DURING the last few years I have observed an interest on the part of my academic colleagues in the departments of the humanities in the influence of science on literature. They have discovered that science as it developed influenced the minds of the dramatists and poets and novelists of its day.

The charming Dean Nicholson of Smith college has turned from her interest in English literature to compose such stimulating essays as "The Microscope and the Imagination" and "The Telescope and the Imagination."

Euclid Was Creative

There is, to those of us who have labored in the vineyards of science and the history of science, a certain condescension in the attitude of the humanists. With a patronizing air of astonishment, they realize that Euclid was quite as creative as Shakespeare.

Apropos there is the reply Professor Cope made to the young man who asked him what use the putting together of the skeleton of the dinosaur was.

"Friends," replied the Quaker professor with some asperity, "thee do not ask the poet to write bills of lading or the painter to whitewash fences. Do you expect the abstract scientist to invent a patent churn?" The young man was outraged that "a grubber among fossils should dare to put himself in the same class with George Moore and Rudyard Kipling."

Aesthetic Fascination

So science has its purely aesthetic fascination, too. I know a man who is the student of a disease which afflicts on the average of one out of 5,000,000 persons; furthermore, it is hereditary, fatal and entirely beyond the reach of treatment. He has seen only three cases in his life, but whenever he hears of another one, even if only a possibility, he packs his kit and starts, his eyes, meanwhile, filled with a holy light.

Another scientist, if you will, ong ago became obsessed to know about the rites attending the obstratics of whales. He recently returned from the Antarctic and gulled some reporter into announcing as the "valuable discovery" of the trip the revelation that male whales were not monogamous, that they had sweethearts in every port. No! Science has revelations which holds us only because, like the Cathedral of Orvieto or the songs in "Cymbeline," they are terribly beautiful and utterly useless.

SHIPPINGPORT

Richard Barnhart suffered a severe cut on his right hand Sunday when he fell on a tin can. He received medical attention at the Rochester General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Craig and children of Missouri visited Monday night with Mrs. Craig's sister, Mrs. Clair Gamble and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Potts of Beaver have concluded a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Louise Potts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Gamble and daughter, Beverly, and Mrs. S. E. Gamble have returned from a visit with relatives in Bethlehem.

Mrs. Ross Ewing and children of Green Garden rd. have concluded a visit with Mrs. Ethel Pence.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Reed and children of Hookstown visited Sunday at the home of Carl Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, Edward Marker and Duane Allison visited in Pittsburgh Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Green was honored with a miscellaneous shower at her home Tuesday.

Americans Turn To Crockery As Cooking Utensil

By ELEANOR ROSS
King Features Syndicate Writer

CROCKERY for cooking, the sort of thing that used to come from France and has had a great vogue with good cooks, is being made most successfully in this country. You'll find that the shops stock grand crockery casseroles, platters and pots, as well as those individual baking pieces.

Cast Iron Substitute

Many a shop is advocating cast iron utensils, with special emphasis on the cast iron Dutch oven. A stew or pot roast or a casserole dish cooked in such a container is a treat, as many oldtime cook will tell you.

The modern cast iron pots and pans are manufactured ready for use, with none of the scouring, greasing and heating in the oven that used to precede their actual use. Cast iron is cheaper, it is durable, but it does take a little more care to keep clean. But against this there is the credit of doing a grand job of keeping in flavors and savors.

Enamelware is likely to come back to the best kitchens. This is ordinary steel coated with enamel, and if care is taken that the enamel does not chip, housewives will find that it does quite well.

Stainless steel cooking utensils are still on the market, in sufficient variety to anticipate the average kitchen requirements. How long this happy state of affairs will continue is not known.

A grand new line of kitchen ware will be introduced this autumn, and although it is rather higher in cost than the average cooking utensils, it is likely to be snatched up in short order. The alloy used is a combination of stainless steel and chrominum, and it is shiny enough to give a cheery note to even the darkest kitchenette.

Glassware Popular

Long before the present shortage of aluminum had been anticipated, many housewives were enthusiastic about the glassware on the market. Now the manufacturers of top-of-the-stove glassware have added to their lines, and it is possible to get a complete set of every type of saucepan and casserole for the top of the stove, to match the grand glass baking utensils. There are transparent frying pans, as well as double boilers, kettles and casseroles, and all are guaranteed flame proof.

If you remember what a fuss was made about the transparent oven ware, then you can anticipate this grand glassware for the top of the stove appearing in many a smart kitchen shower. Still expensive, yes, if measured by the price of the average saucepan, but a grand acquisition for the kitchen.

Food Control Irksome

WEMBLEY, Eng.—A shopkeeper at Wembley, Middlesex, has asked the local food control committee to remove a woman from his list of registered customers. He says she causes trouble, grumbles too much, abuses the assistants. So he doesn't want her trade. The committee has tabled the request.

FIRES FLARE FREELY FIREFIGHTERS FIZZLE

By The Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1—During a severe electrical storm, the firefighters of Engine Company 58 were summoned to a burning house. Smelling smoke long before they reached the scene, they piled off the truck to quench fire in the brake drums. Then the truck roared into action again to make up lost time.

It was a tough night to drive, what with sheets of rain and dazzling lightning. The truck smacked against a parked auto and the fifty-fighters had to call for a tow car.

It was just as well the rain was pouring, for it put out the fire in the dwelling. No. 58 never got there.
